

Asia/Pacific GLS Seminar

6th and 7th December 2012 - Sydney, Australia

Airservices Australia in collaboration with the Civil Aviation Safety Authority of Australia invites delegates of the Asia/Pacific Region to participate in the Asia/Pacific GNSS Landing System Seminar – GLS Seminar in Sydney Australia on 6 and 7 December 2012.

The GLS Seminar will discuss and inform participants on emerging GLS technology, airport and airline GLS planning, and the development of applicable standards. The seminar will be delivered by experts from Airservices Australia, the Civil Aviation Safety Authority Australia, Sydney Airport, QANTAS and equipment suppliers.

The GLS Seminar has been scheduled to allow delegates to participate in Sydney before going on to Nadi, Fiji for the ICAO Asia/Pacific Performance-Based Navigation (PBN) Development Workshop 2012 and the Tenth Meeting of the Performance-Based Navigation Task Force (PBN/TF/10) from 10th to 13th December 2012.

Venue

The GLS Seminar will be at the Holiday Inn, Sydney Airport for Thursday 6 December and an airside visit to the Sydney Airport GLS will depart from the holiday Inn on Friday morning 7 December 2012.

Accommodation is available at the Holiday Inn with delegates responsible for arranging their booking directly with the Holiday Inn.

A hotel shuttle service is available between the Sydney International and Domestic Terminals and the Holiday Inn (fee applies).

Alternative hotels are available in close proximity the Holiday Inn. Details of the alternative hotels are provided in the attached list. Public train and bus transport connects the venue with central Sydney.
