National actions in Kazakhstan to Green Aviation

Kazakhstan Becomes First CIS Country to Join ICAO Program on Sustainable Aviation Fuels

BY SANIYA SAKENOVA in INTERNATIONAL on 14 MAY 2024

ASTANA – Kazakh Vice Minister of Transport Talgat Lastayev and Regional Director for the International Civil Aviation Organization’s (ICAO) European and North Atlantic Office Nicolas Rallo signed an agreement on Assistance, Capacity-building and Training (ACT) for Sustainable Aviation Fuels (SAF) on May 13, reported Kazakhstan’s Civil Aviation Committee.

Preliminary Kazakhstan's State Action Plan to reduce CO₂ in civil for the period 2024-2027 aims at:

- a) Limiting CO₂ emissions from civil aviation activities starting with 2020;
- b) Informing the aircraft operators and ANSP and Airport operators on new technologies promoted internationally;
- c) Encouraging involvement of national aviation stakeholders in international and national projects aiming at reducing GHG emissions.

Thank You
